

Simmons/Reimbursement

1 | Create and Fill out the RFP

1.1 | Go to atlas.mit.edu, click My Reimbursements, then Request a Reimbursement for Me

1.2 | Fill out receipt Information Page with the following fields:

- Date of Service: The date the item was bought (typically on the receipt)
- G/L Account: The type of expense – Unless you see one that is directly applicable, use either 421000 “Meetings, Food, and Beverages”, 420318 “Recreation Related Expenses”, or leave blank
- Cost Object: 2720682 is the Simmons Hall number, always use this.
- Amount: amount on receipt without tax*

1.3 | Add Line Item (optional): Under the Explanation box, there is an “Add Line” button. Click this to add another (usually related) transaction to your RFP. Each receipt should have its own line item!

1.4 | Add Receipts: Scan/photograph the receipts and attach if available. A valid receipt must be itemized and have proof of purchase (ex. last four digits of your credit card number or “paid in cash”).

1.5 | Send to: search for “Liam Coy” (Icoy, Nuclear Science and Engineering)

*: MIT can reimburse tip, gratuity, and shipping, but not tax. (But, you can get a tax exemption!)

2 | Special Cases

Travel: For travel reimbursements, a separate Concur system at web.mit.edu/concur must be used. MIT cannot pay gas, taxi cabs, rideshares, travel expenses beforehand.

Large Items/Receipts: Can only use requisition / purchase orders on items over $5,000. Reach out before making any purchases.

Paying a person for services/hiring: Very complicated restrictions

Prizes/Awards: Tricky because it can technically fall under payment for services if not careful

Events where money is collected: Free cash boxes, and armed escort if desired

In any of these cases, please contact me at simmons-treasurer@mit.edu.
